Invites you to join us for lunch and an engaging presentation on:

Niagara College Student Projects

Presenter is Peter Vandenberg

Coordinator Broadcasting - Niagara College • School of Media

Wednesday, November 1, 2017 at 12:00 noon

Club Capri, 36 Cleveland Street, Thorold

Cost: $25.00 (tax and gratuities incl.)

A graduate of Niagara College's Broadcasting: Radio, TV, Film program (BRTF), Peter Vandenberg excelled as a student, and went on to launch a successful career in television production. When Peter returned to the college, it was to accept the position of professor in BRTF. A couple of years later he was appointed program coordinator for television.

His enthusiastic approach to life is well appreciated by students and colleagues alike, and this year he was recognized as N.C.'s Academic Award of Excellence winner. Affectionately known as "Big Dutch," Peter shares a wealth of industry experience with students. At the November NCRA luncheon, Peter will share with us some of the intriguing student projects from the television production program.
